Sir,

In submitting herewith the record of enquiry relating to the Toddy Revenue of Dodi Gajjiganahalli village, Nanjungud taluk, I have the honor to state that I concur in the opinions of the investigating officer and the Deputy Commissioner that the Dodidars are entitled to the Excise Revenue from Toddy. There is both a Toddy shop and a date grove in the village. The former has been sold by Government regularly from the year 1892-93, and the latter was sold from the year 1892-93 to the year 1896-7

1896–97. The Mutchalikas which are on the accompanying file, also show that both a toddy shop and a date grove have always been in existence in the village. But Subbabhatta, one of the Vrittidars of the village, who has stated that there are no date trees in the village, seems to be ignorant of the existence of a date grove in it.

2. The accompanying authenticated Copy of the Inam Settlement Register shows that Toddy was included in the assets of the Beriz of the village; that it was also one of the items enjoyed by the Jodidars; and that it was conceded at the Inam Settlement.

3. Accordingly Excise Revenue is payable to the Jodidars, subject to Rules 2, 3, 5, 6 and 9 in Government Proceedings No. $\frac{2074-83}{K.F.\ 166-92}$, dated 2nd August 1901.

Allowing the claim of the Inamdars of Gajjiganahalli village, Nanjangud Taluk, to the toddy Excise revenue of the village.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Excise, dated 20th November 1903.

READ—

Correspondence ending with letter No. 3601—156, dated 29th October 1903, from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, submitting the record of enquiry relating to the Inamdars' claim to the toddy revenue of Jodi Gajjiganahalli village, Nanjangud Taluk, Mysore District.

No. 402-3—Ex. F. 12-01, DATED BANGALORE, 20TH NOVEMBER 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The village has both a toddy shop and a date grove. The Inamdars' claim to the toddy revenue, which is supported by the terms of the Inam Settlement as well as by long enjoyment, is allowed subject to Rules 2, 3, 5, 6, 9, 10 and 11 contained in Government Order No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901, as recommended by the Excise Commissioner.

2. It is regretted that the investigating officer did not take pains to ascertain from independent sources the existence of a date grove in the village and that he, therefore, wrongly treated the case as one falling under Rule 12. It has now been ascertained that there are some 25 date trees, at present, in the village.

3. A refund bill for the amount due to Inamdars under the three systems of toddy administration should be submitted to Government together with a statement showing the details of calculation.
